

CLE Disclaimer

- ⇒ Provided on your CLE application form is an estimate of the number of CLE credit hours OLE anticipates will be accredited by the majority of the state bar organizations for each course or program.
- ⇒ PLEASE BEWARE – The number of hours on the back of the OLE CLE form may not be the same number of hours ultimately awarded by the bar. CLE credit hours are awarded at the discretion of each state bar in accordance with each bar's rules and procedures.
- ⇒ The state bars generally do not finalize the number of hours to be awarded until receiving the course or program paperwork from OLE at the conclusion of the course or program.
- ⇒ OLE assists our attorneys with CLE as a service. CLE and bar membership are the responsibility of each individual attorney.
